New York Financial Market.
NEW YORK, March 17.—Money—14½ per cent., closed at 14½ per cent.

Prime Merchantile Paper—4½ per cent.

Government Bonds—Quiet and a shade lower for the few cents registered. Others unchanged.

Railroad Bonds—Quiet and lower.

State Securities—Quiet.

Trading in the Stock market was suspended until the final hour of the board, which was the quietest there this year. The only stock which was traded was Union Pacific. Among the remaining reports in circulation in regard to this company, it is reported that the latest report of the United States Railroad Commissioner to the Department of the Interior would show there had been an increase of about $2,000,000 in the floating debt of the company, and that the amount of its capital stock had decreased.

The difference between Central and Union Pacific, and a published statement that the former had refused to receive freight at Ogden from the Union Pacific except at local rates, has caused a great deal of interest.

On stocks, Exchange averaged 170,000 shares, of which 12,000 were Lackawanna, 10,000 Lake Shore, 23,000 Northwestern, 11,000 New Jersey Central, 10,000 New York Central, 10,000 St. Paul, 30,000 Union Pacific and 10,000 Union.

The downward movement in Horn Silver is the special feature of the mining market, this morning the price was down on most of 425 shares.

The price is 17½ lower than the lowest point of 1884 and 26 lower than the lowest of 1883.

Two hundred shares of Consolidated Pacific sold at 93 and 300 of Little Chief at 22.
